

HOMEWORK FOR YEAR 10 ENGLISH MISS LIZ'S GROUP: WEEKS 4 – 7

I have decided to post now, ALL the homework for the rest of your course for this academic year. Your mock exams will start on the third day of Eid so this will give you a chance to do the work, for any given week, in advance if you want to do so.

You will also see that I have posted a list of essay titles and instructions for students who were supposed to come to school in the Spring break, to make up this missing work but could not as we were not allowed to be in school. If you follow the instructions and complete whatever number of essays is needed in your individual case, and submit them to me, I will amend your CA mark accordingly. If you choose not to do them, your mark will remain the same, obviously! The last date for submitting make-up essays is May 21st. Anything arriving after this date will not be marked or counted as I will be far too busy with mock exams.

Good luck!

Miss Liz
